SPACE RESERVED FOR THE EMBASSY OR CONSULATE

Once the visa request has been submitted, a copy of the form, sealed with the indication of the date and place of reception, shall be returned to the applicant.

Arrangements can be made with the applicant as to the channel to request corrections or the supply of documents or certificates, as well as to serve notice of summons and to notify the decision adopted in due course.

Notices and requests shall be served by telephone or fax to the contact number provided by the interested party or his legal representative. If they were to prove ineffective, they shall be served in writing to the domicile set out in the application, which must be located within the consular district.

Summons and requests served must be complied with within a period not exceeding ten days, unless personal attendance is required in which case the deadline is fifteen days.

Once all the possibilities of serving a notice have been exhausted, the notice shall be served by means of an announcement posted at the relevant notice board of the Embassy or Consulate during ten days.

If a request or summons remains unanswered, the applicant shall be deemed as having withdrawn his request and the resolution establishing this to be the case shall be notified to him.

The maximum time periods to notify a resolution pertaining to a visa is of three months for transit, short-term and residence visas. For the rest of visas, the period is one month.

Once the maximum period to adopt a resolution has elapsed, the visa request may be deemed as rejected.

The visa once granted must be collected within a month, unless it is a visa for family regroupment or a visa for study purposes; in this particular case, it must be collected before two months elapse.

If a visa is not collected within the aforesaid periods, the applicant shall be deemed to have renounced to the visa granted and the proceedings shall be filed.
